At a COMMON COUNCIL holden in the CHAMBER of the Guildhall of the CITY of LONDON, on Friday the 12th day of February 1779

Resolved unanimously that the Thanks of this Court be given to the Honourable Auguſtus Keppel, Admiral of the Blue, for his long and faithful Services to this Country; for his ready acceptance at the call of his SOVEREIGN of the important charge of Commander of the BRITISH FLEET in time of imminent Danger; for the anxious attention that appears in every inſtance of his Conduct to the Safety of this Country; for his judicious able and ſpirited behaviour on the Twenty-ſeventh of July laſt, in his attack on the FRENCH FLEET; for his glorious and gallant Efforts to renew the Engagement in the Afternoon of that Day; Efforts rendered unſucceſsful thro the want of Obedience to his Orders by the Vice Admiral of the Blue; for the great protection given by him to our Trade, to which entirely we are indebted for the ſafe arrival of the Eaſt and Weſt India Fleets; for his animating Conduct and Example happily followed by ſuch Signal Exertion of Spirit and Intrepidity in the Officers and Seamen of the Britiſh Fleet, as conveyed Terror to our Enemies, and obliged them to ſeek Shelter in their own Ports by an ignominious Flight.
